Flights operate from and to Bangkok’s Suvarnabhumi Airport. Bangkok Airways also offer a minibus service to U-Tapao airport and then an onward flight to Samui or Phuket. Schedule changes are not uncommon so you might want to check www.bangkokair.com or call 1771 for the latest flight times. The Trat Airport office of Bangkok Airways can be reached on 039-551-654/5, and the airport contact is 039-525-767/8. If you take the later flight and it is delayed in any way then don’t worry - they hold the last ferry to Koh Chang to meet minibuses from the airport so you won’t get stranded.

Buses from Bangkok

Probably the best way to get down to Koh Chang is by bus from either Ekamai - Bangkok’s eastern bus terminal, or Morchit - the northern terminal. The frequent departures from both are detailed in the table provided.

Buses take from four to six hours to get down to Trat or the Koh Chang ferries. Most convenient are the buses run by Tanakawee or 99 Express that go directly to the ferry stops at Centrepoint and Ao Thammachat. Expect to pay around 275-300 Baht for your journey.

If you get a bus to Trat, the nearest town to Koh Chang, you will arrive at Trat's bus station, about 1km out of town (See the Trat Map). Taxis will be waiting to take you the 20 kilometres to the Koh Chang ferry for about 300 Baht. You can reduce this to 50 Baht if you are prepared to wait and take a shared taxi.

There are also minibuses that pick up from guesthouses around Khao San Road in Bangkok and travel directly to the ferry departure point at Laem Ngop. You can book one from any of the scores of travel agents in this area. The buses typically leave at 7-8 am and take 5 or 6 hours. The trip costs around 300B including ferry crossing. Minibuses return to Bangkok at 11 am every day from Laem Ngop.

Buses from Suvarnabhumi Airport

All the bus services that leave from Morchit bus terminal stop to pick up passengers at Suvarnabhumi airport's bus station. This service is linked to the airport by a free white shuttle bus. The 99 Express buses from Ekamai also stop here. For departure times add twenty minutes to the Bangkok departure times in the timetable.

Going to Laem Ngop the services typically leave Pattaya at 8am and pick up in Ban Pae at 11 am. A return service leaves Laem Ngop at 1pm daily. Public buses leave for Pattaya from Trat's bus station at 05.00, 09.30, 12.00 and 15.00 daily. It's a long hot journey and taking the minibus option is more comfortable.

There is also a minibus service that leaves from the Ao Thammachat ferry arrival point for Pattaya every hour (and vice versa). It costs 300 Baht.

By Car

You can easily reach Eastern Thailand and its islands by road and two regular car ferries operate to Koh Chang.

There are two main driving routes from Bangkok, both around 310km long.

The first route is to take Highway 3, the Bangna - Trat road. There is a quicker elevated tollway running above Highway 3. Continue until the Chonburi Bypass and here turn off onto Highway 344. Follow this road past Ban Bung and when you reach the Klaeng Crossroads turn back onto Highway 3 and continue on towards Trat.

Alternatively, you can leave Bangkok on the Motorway that is a continuation of the Rama IX, Srinakarin road. This road goes onwards and meets Highway 344 where you can continue to Trat as detailed above.

To avoid Trat and go directly to the ferry departure points turn right onto the well-signposted Laem Ngop road about 20km outside Trat.

If you're driving from Pattaya, then take Highway 36 which joins Highway 3 heading towards Trat shortly after Rayong.
On the east coast of Koh Chang lies Serenity Resort - a mixture of luxurious bungalows and expansive two-bed villas with rooftop terraces and jacuzzis.

Travel to and from Cambodia

If you're coming to Koh Chang from Cambodia, then it is most convenient to travel to Koh Chang via daily minibus services from both Phnom Penh and Sihanoukville taking you directly all the way to Koh Chang (and also the other way round from Koh Chang travelling to Cambodia). Local travel agents can book the trip for you.

These trips involve a full day’s travel, but they take you door to door. Don’t forget cash and a passport photo for your Cambodian visa.

Boats to the Islands

Koh Chang

A car ferry operates from Ao Thammachat on the mainland to Ao Sapparot on Koh Chang. Ao Thammachat is 9km from Laem Ngop and 17km from Trat Airport. A second ferry, now named Cenferry, goes from Centrepoint, 3 km up the coast from Laem Ngop. Times and prices are as per the table.

On arrival, share taxis wait to take passengers to the various beaches. White Sands Beach (Hat Sai Khao) is 50B, Klong Prao is 60B, Kai Bae is 80B, Lonely Beach costs 120B and Bang Bao is 150B. NB - In the quieter season, these taxis will often not leave until they are full unless you hire the whole taxi for 800 baht or even more. It is expensive but there is no point arguing - pay or wait.

Koh Mak, Koh Kham, Koh Kood & Koh Wai

It is now easy (at least in the high season from October to May) to get boats and speedboats from Koh Chang to the other local islands. Bang Bao Boat and Kai Bae Speedboat both offer a daily service from Koh Chang to these islands and there is also now a high-speed catamaran service provided by Boonsiri. You can book them all through local travel agencies.

And there are ferry services to Koh Mak and Koh Kood from the mainland that operate year round. Krungthep Limousine runs a minibus service that connects Trat Airport with the ferry ports for Koh Mak and Koh Kood. Transfer costs are between 500 and 700 Baht. To be sure to get there the same day then they recommend that you take the first flight during the low season or the first/second flight during the high season.

Getting Around Koh Chang

On Koh Chang, white share taxis run between all the beaches as far as Bang Bao and the ferry terminals from 6 am until late evening. They can be flagged down anywhere and used to travel around the island. If you are planning to return to your hotel late at night, don’t rely on the taxis since evening services are a bit erratic. Either book a taxi yourself or take advantage of the transport services that are increasingly being offered by many of the hotels, bars and restaurants on the island.

Alternatively, you can hire cars, motorcycles and bicycles from many hire firms and resorts around the island.

Roads are of variable quality and there are some dangerous hill sections. If you are an inexperienced motorcycle rider then think carefully before hiring a motorbike. Every year the island has quite a few road deaths and many visitors have their trip spoiled by a motorcycle accident. If you don’t wear a helmet the local police will be waiting to fine you.

Leaving Koh Chang

When leaving the island from any of the main beaches wait anywhere on the road about 45 minutes before ferry departure and share taxis will stop and pick you up as they pass taking you to the ferry departure point. If you are travelling to Trat Airport then you can book a minibus that will take you directly to the airport. Book this on 039-516-005 or 086-563-8889.

Travel Agencies

On Koh Chang, you will find that you can book transport and island activities at any of scores of little travel agents. But how can you know which ones are reliable? Don’t worry; there is one way. Travel agencies in Thailand can apply for official recognition through the Tourist Authority of Thailand (T.A.T.). After paying a deposit and passing a review the T.A.T. issues them with a license number. So ask your travel agent for their T.A.T. number. Then you can be sure that they are licensed and in the event of any difficulties you can contact the T.A.T.

A well-established White Sand Beach travel agent with TAT accreditation and a good reputation is Island Net (Tel: 086-721-4179).

Aurora Koh Chang Travel is a Klong Prao based travel agency with over ten years’ experience who organise trips, tours and accommodation on Koh Chang, Koh Mak, Koh Kood and Cambodia.

We also provide room bookings as well as featuring properties and businesses for sale on the island. Also, you can read or download interactive PDF files of all of the latest copies of our guides and maps so that even if you are outside Thailand you can stay up to date on Koh Chang.

For those of you on Facebook joining our Group - The Koh Chang Guide - is a good way to stay up to date with events on the island.

Climate

Southeast Thailand only really has two seasons, a dry period that runs from November to May and a wet season from June to October. Temperatures are coolest from November to December with daily maximums averaging around 30C. Just before the wet season, this can rise to the high thirties.

It can rain heavily in the wet season but rainfall is by no means constant and sunny days are still common. All the resorts and facilities on Koh Chang remain open and this can be a good time to visit for those seeking a quieter holiday. The busiest time for visitors to the region is December to April.

Tourist Information

There is a Tourist Authority of Thailand (TAT) office in Laem Ngop.

You can get information on Koh Chang National Park from the National Parks offices in Laem Ngop or from their offices at Koh Chang.

Health & Medical Facilities

Koh Chang International Clinic, part of the Bangkok Hospital group, (039-551-555 or www.kohchanginterclinic.com) is located on White Sands Beach. They are open 24 hours a day. Service is good, but it is very expensive.

There is a small hospital in Koh Chang just south of where the mainland ferry arrives (Phone - 039 586 131/160). Klong Son, Kai Bae, Klong Prao and Bang Bao also have small clinics.

Trat has two large hospitals. Bangkok Trat Hospital is a private institution, which has excellent facilities and is recommended, especially to those with travel insurance, in the event of any major accidents or emergencies (039-532-735). Trat Hospital is a government-run institution and generally offers good treatment, but longer waits. (039-511-040/1).

There is a leading drug and alcohol rehabilitation centre on Koh Chang. DARA Thailand offer treatment programs by internationally certified therapists in a comfortable, secluded and luxurious resort setting. Contact them on 087-140-7788 or info@dararehab.com.

Dara is part of the largest licensed Private Rehab group in SE Asia. Highly qualified professionals from renowned organisations have joined DARA and together with their two Chiang Mai based treatment centres Lanna Rehab and Jintara Rehab they offer truly world-class treatment facilities.

Increasingly people are using their holidays in Thailand to have dental work done. Dentists here are as good as in the rest of the world and charge a fraction of the prices in Europe and the

The Koh Chang Guide

We continue to distribute 190,000 print copies of our guides and maps every year. In fact, demand has never been higher - just ask any hotel or travel agency how many copies they give to their guests.

Yes, of course it’s important to promote online, that’s where our e-guides website and 7,000 Facebook page subscribers come in. Nobody can offer your business print and online exposure like we can, we’ll even organise your social media if you like.

So, if you want to stand out, then get in touch.

US. Now you can use the Koh Chang Dental Clinic or Baan More Fun Dentist in Trat to get your teeth healthy. Contacts are 086-320-0702 and 039-557-235.

Similarly, Thailand is a good place to buy prescription glasses, sunglasses and contact lenses since prices are much lower than back in Europe or elsewhere. You will find a great number of optical shops in all of the island’s shopping areas.

The region has some Malaria although cases are extremely rare. Dengue fever is also a slight risk. The locals don't take prophylactics but the choice is yours.

Animal Health Services

Koh Chang has 2 non-profit organisations devoted to animal welfare. The Koh Chang Animal Project offers all kinds of inoculations and veterinary services from their clinic in Klong Son on the road leading to Ban Kwan Chang Elephant Camp. You can contact the project on 089-042-2347 or online at www.kohchanganimalproject.org Happy Dogs Koh Chang (happydogs.kohchang.com) also look after the welfare of the island’s homeless dogs, providing food and medical assistance and also neutering and spaying. Donations are gratefully accepted and always put to good use.

There is also a vet in Chai Chet who provides good service (039-551-674).

Emergencies (Call 1669)

In the event of a medical emergency after normal ferry hours contact the Ko Chang International Clinic call centre on 039-551-555 or Bangkok Trat Hospital on 039-532-735. They can arrange for emergency evacuation by boat and ambulance to Trat.

Another option is Koh Chang Rescue, a voluntary organisation that acts as an extra emergency service on the island. If you need medical help and can't get an ambulance, then they are there 24hrs. on 088-525-1100

The main police station on Koh Chang is at Dan Mai. They can be contacted on 039-586-191. There are also police stations in White Sands Beach (Tel. 039-551-544) and in Chai Chet, Kai Bae and Bailan Beach. Alternatively, the Tourist Police can be contacted on 039-557-382/3 or 1155.
Banks
Koh Chang has ATMs all over the place so withdrawing cash is no problem. There are also lots of banks and foreign exchange offices at the main beaches. Some of them, notably Bangkok Bank and Krung Thai bank, are also open on weekends and foreign exchange booths often open until 8 pm. Various hotels and guesthouses will change both traveller’s cheques and cash but the rates offered are lower than the banks. Many resorts and restaurants also accept credit card payments but they often charge an extra three per cent processing fee.

Communications
The island’s main Post Office is at Pearl Beach. There is also a smaller post office at the beginning of the pier in Bang Bao.
Postal rates are reasonable. A small postcard to any country is 15B and large postcards are more. Airmail letters start at 14 Baht and increase depending on destination and size. The post office will not send letters with stamps of insufficient value so it is best to get them weighed and stamped in the post office to be sure that they will be delivered.
NB: If you are receiving mail on Koh Chang or giving somebody a postal address on Koh Chang then to give your post a better chance of reaching its intended address then you should include the beach or village name of the place you are sending mail to. Thus our address is White Sand Publications, 222/12 Moo 4, Pearl Beach, Koh Chang, Trat, 23170.

Immigration
Passport holders from 42 countries are not required to obtain a visa to enter Thailand for tourism purposes and will be permitted to stay in the Kingdom for a period of not exceeding 30 days. The closest immigration office to Koh Chang is located at Laem Ngop a few kilometres from the Koh Chang ferry ports. The location is marked on the Koh Chang Map. They can deal with visa extensions and other queries here. If you have a 30-Day Visa for Thailand you can extend this for to 30 days. You can also get a 30-day extension on a two month visa. These extensions cost 1,900 Baht each. A visa overstay will cost you 500 Baht per day and payment is a relatively routine process as you leave the country.

There is a small immigration office on Koh Chang but this, inexplicably, does not provide visa extensions. They do, however do 90-day reporting for long-term stayers. Opening hours are erratic. You can obtain a tourist visa permitting stays of up to six months. This costs 5,000 Baht and is available from your local Thai embassy or consulate. It is a multiple entry visa so you will need to leave and re-enter Thailand every 60 days but despite this, it is very useful if you are planning a longer stay in the Kingdom.

Environmental Protection
Please remember that you are in a national park. Avoid littering and leave Koh Chang as beautiful as you found it. Also please bring your own shopping bags and try and reduce the island’s plastic bag problems by not accepting single-use plastics and plastic bags. If you would like to help with keeping Koh Chang clean then visit the Facebook page of Trash Hero Koh Chang, the local chapter of a fast-growing non-profit organisation that is working to do something about the problem and maybe volunteer a little time to helping to preserve paradise. The page is at Facebook.com/trashherokohchang

As the island develops, there are inevitably issues with litter, pollution and destruction of natural resources. If you see any such transgressions then we suggest that you report them to either the national park office or to the Tourism Authority of Thailand. Or stick them on a Koh Chang Facebook page. What you say can have a big impact!

Important Dates & Events
On Thai public holidays banks, post offices etc. are closed but all transport and most tourism-related businesses still operate as normal.
Also, remember that Koh Chang is an island served by ferries. On the first day of public holidays many people travel to Koh Chang by car and long queues for the ferries can develop. Set off early if you're coming down on these days and you can save yourselves a long wait.

Diving

There are some excellent diving and snorkelling opportunities around Koh Chang and the region is rapidly developing into a major centre of diving in Thailand.

The diving in the area is mainly at reasonably shallow depths with good reefs located at 5 to 25 metres. Visibility can reach 30m but is variable. You can dive year round but the best time is between October and the end of May since rougher seas during the rainy season can reduce visibility or make it difficult to reach the dive sites. However, there are calmer periods in the rainy season when diving conditions are OK.

There are impressive reefs in the area with a variety of soft and hard corals including Massive, Columnar and Staghorn Corals. These support a range of tropical reef life including Blue Tipped Rays, Moray Eels, Trigger Fish, Grouper and Batfish. Turtles can be spotted and Whale Sharks are also seen in the area from time to time.

There are a series of dive sites offering good diving at 5-18m around the seamounts and small islands to the West of Koh Chang. These include Koh Man Nok and Hin Sam Sao. The deeper dive sites are located off some of the islands and seamounts to the South of the Archipelago. Hin Luk Bat has a lot of good coral and some good swim-throughs. Hin Raap is a deeper rocky site with good soft corals.

There are also some good dive sites around Koh Rang Island. This is slightly further away from Koh Chang but well worth the journey to dive some interesting pinnacles and see some of the best coral reefs in the region.

Koh Chang now has two wreck dives. The first is the HTMS Chang which lies in waters to the South-East of Koh Chang. The 100-metre long vessel provides all kinds of pleasure and technical diving opportunities to those who fancy something a little more adventurous.

The newest wreck is the 30 metre T11. Sunk by the Thai Navy in December 2013 this wreck is in shallower water and divers with an Open Water diving certificate can dive the site.

You can book your diving by visiting the offices of the dive shops or from resorts and travel agencies on the island. Or refer to Chang Diving Center?

The price for a two-day Discover Scuba course is 4,500B while full PADI certification costs around 14,500B. Pleasure dives cost 2,700-3,000B, depending on site, for two dives with lunch. All other PADI courses are also available.

They also offer a full repair and servicing workshop for all sorts of Scuba equipment and are the largest equipment dive equipment supplier in Eastern Thailand. Snorkelling

While the beaches of Koh Chang themselves offer little opportunity for snorkelling there are some good corals and plenty of fish off Pearl Beach, the small pebble beach between White Sand Beach and Chai Chet, just be careful getting in and out of the water because the rocks can be slippery.

Other islands can be reached by boat trips and there is some excellent shallow reef for snorkelling at these sites. Most of the dive shops will also take snorkellers on their boats. Contact them for prices and details.

Swimming & Watersports

It is generally fine to swim off all of Koh Chang's beaches. In the high season, conditions are calm and safe, and the gradual slope of the beaches makes for good swimming conditions.

Note, however, that during the monsoon heavy seas with strong rip tides can develop off Koh Chang’s beaches and people drown every year. There is little in the way of lifeguards or safety equipment so if you go out and get into trouble you can’t expect any help. Basically, don’t swim beyond your abilities and if the sea looks dangerous it probably is, so stay out of the water when it’s too rough.

Stand-Up Paddling (SUP) is a fast-growing watersport that you can now try on Koh Chang.

SUP Station Koh Chang operates from Iyara Seafood in a great spot at the mouth of the river in Klong Prao. You can paddle at sea and also in and around the river and lagoon.

SUP Adventure Asia is a business that is located down on Klong Koi Beach in Bang Bao Bay. They will teach you, take you on SUP tours or if you're already an expert you can just hire a board from them.

Gyms and Yoga

If you want to stay in shape while on Koh Chang then you might fancy a workout at BB Gym in Lonely Beach. They have all kinds of weight and cardiac equipment as well as offering daily Yoga classes. They also have Wii games and a swimming pool, and there is also a bar and restaurant in which to recover.

Shambhala Beach Gym in the Siam Royal Bay village in Klong Son is a smart modern air-conditioned gym with a large selection of fitness equipment.

Over on Koh Chang's East Coast The Spa Koh Chang also offers Yoga classes.

There are also gyms at some of the bigger resorts and in White Sand Beach and Chai Chet.

Golf

Yes, there is a golf course on Koh Chang. Opened several years ago at the Siam Royal View Resort on the north of the island five minutes from the ferry ports, this par three course has nine holes with different tee positions so you can play in one direction in the morning and then you can play a different route in the afternoon. They rent clubs and balls for only Baht 300 and after your round, you are welcome to take a dip in one of the resort's infinity pools or take lunch or dinner.

island offers some challenging and enjoyable walking. Several people on the island act as guides and due to the demanding terrain and bad paths it’s probably worth taking a guide unless you’re an expert. Travel agencies offer jungle trekking.

There is a Mangrove Walkway close to Salak Kok on the East of the island and a second one in nearby Salak Phet. Both of them give you a trip over secluded snaking waterways.

The ten-minute riverside walk through the jungle to Klong Plu waterfall in Klong Prao is extremely pleasant and there is a one-kilometre circuit path up through the rainforest over a nearby hill back to the ranger station if you fancy something a little more energetic.

Cycling
A fun way to see the island while reducing your carbon footprint is to rent a bicycle, although you will need to be in good shape to tackle some of the island’s bigger hills. There are bikes for hire at various resorts and places around the main beaches, Koh Chang Holiday in Coconut Plaza at Chai Chet have some good bikes for rent.

Muay Thai
Koh Chang has its own centre for Thai boxing in Bailan Beach. The KC Thai Boxing Club offers a range of Muay Thai training courses. You can do a one-day introduction to Muay Thai or for the more committed students there are courses ranging from one week to two months.

Wildlife
Most of Koh Chang is covered in rainforest that has been largely undisturbed due to the mountainous terrain of the island. There are also good examples of mangrove forest ecosystems where the island’s numerous streams meet the sea. Marine National Park status was awarded to the island chain in 1982 in an effort to preserve the exceptional land and marine environment.

The forests of the island support a large range of wildlife. A survey conducted for Thailand’s National Park Service in 1992 recorded 29 different species of mammal on Koh Chang. These included the Stump-Tailed Macaque, Barking Deer, Wild Pig, Javan Mongoose and Silvered Langur.

Birdwatchers will be pleased to know that 74 bird species were found including the Nightjar, Pacific Swallow, Yellow Vented Bulbul and Oriental Pied Hornbill

Additionally, the survey noted 42 different species of amphibians and reptiles. Snakes that inhabit Koh Chang include the Python, Rat Snake and King Cobra. Malayan Mud Turtles, Monitor Lizards and the ubiquitous Geckoes are also found on the island. There are also a variety of very vocal frogs.

Waterfalls
The following waterfalls are free to visit and there is usually plenty of water from July to December. They may dry up after this though so ask around for the latest information. Klong Nonsi waterfall is close to Dan Mai on the eastern side of the island. It has several tiers. The first is at the end of an 800-metre road on the left side of the government office, and at the top, there is an inscription made by King Rama V. There are two waterfalls, Klong Neung and Khiri Phet near to Salak Phet in the southeast of the island. Both are clearly signposted. There are also smaller waterfalls up the valleys behind Klong Son, White Sands Beach and Kai Bae. Ask locals for directions.

There are also national park administered waterfalls at Klong Plu near Klong Prao village and Than Mayom near to Dan Mai village. Foreigners are charged an entry fee of 200 Baht. Thais pay 20 Baht.
Elephant Trekking

The word ‘Chang’ means elephant in Thai, so what could be more appropriate than going elephant trekking on Elephant Island. The treks are a good opportunity to sample some of the beautiful scenery of inland Koh Chang. You can go directly to the elephant camps yourselves, but since the best ones are hidden away in the jungle it might be easier to call them directly or book at a tour agency to arrange a pick up from your hotel.

Chang Chutiman operates economical and popular elephant trekking to the interior of the island from their new jungle elephant camp about 500 metres from the main road in Klong Prao village.

Ban Kwan Chang offers elephant treks that take place in another beautiful inland valley to the North of the island. To get there turn inland at Klong Son and proceed for about 3km.

Shopping

You can pick up a surprisingly large range of goods, both souvenirs and necessities in Koh Chang. There are a huge number of shops selling souvenir items on the major beaches. These include carvings, jewellery, ethnic clothing and handicrafts, bags, T-Shirts, CDs etc.

Thailand is rightly well-known as a place where you can get quality tailoring at economical rates. A great example on Koh Chang is Versace Fashion who are located opposite the night food market on White Sand Beach. They have earned a great reputation during their twelve years in business on Koh Chang. They will be happy to tailor make ladies and gents clothes using Thai silk, linen, cotton, cashmere, wool and other quality fabrics. They also store your measurements for 10 years and are happy to make to order and send overseas by post.

Peace Moon now has three shops on the pier in Bang Bao, selling all kinds of bags, belts and leather products that they make by hand themselves from regular leather as well as Ostrich and crocodile skin. They also have a range of silver jewellery and other souvenirs. They have also just opened a new store in the centre of White Sand Beach.

You can find small supermarkets, now including 7-Eleven and Tesco-Lotus stores, on all the beaches selling a reasonable range of foods, groceries, hardware and every kind of tourist item and souvenir you can imagine. For Western food products try Anna Store in White Sand Beach and Sing Tong in Klong Prao, both of which offer a good selection.

Also, there are now three large supermarkets on the island. Makro is a cash-and-carry store in White Sand Beach and Big C and Tesco Lotus have supermarkets located in Pearl Beach (Hat Kai Mook).

Reading
The new library available to visitors to Elysian Pearl at Dan Mai on Koh Chang’s East Coast is by far the island's largest selection of books. They have thousands including the entire stock of the old Booksthailand, and they are all available for visitors to read for free.

Cookery
If you want to learn how to make authentic Thai food then why not try Thai cookery classes from the cooking home and restaurant of KA-TI Culinary also in Klong Prao.

Another option at Bailan Beach is to try the Thai cooking course at The Happy Turtle.

Massage, Saunas, Spas & Beauty
Why not relax with a traditional Thai massage? The Spa Koh Chang Resort is at Salak Khok on the east side of the island. They offer a range of fasting, detox and cleansing programs as well as meditation, yoga and massage therapy. They have a herbal steam room and swimming pool. The Chill Resort in Kai Bae is home to The Chill Spa where they invite you to pamper yourself in an oasis of relaxation. There are also plenty of massage shops and beach massage places.

Tattooing
There are a number of Tattooists on the island. Standards of artwork are generally good. On White Sands Beach, Jack, who is based at Tantawan Bungalows, does impressive work using traditional tattooing techniques combined with modern cleanliness and sterilised equipment.

Treetop Adventure Park
This place at Bailan Beach offers you the opportunity to attempt their two tree-top walks. You can walk, swing and tightrope your way through the trees, enjoying some spectacular views along the way.

Now there is also a special rope course trip that has been designed especially for children so all the family can take part in an arboreal adventure.
Koh Mak

Koh Mak is an attractive, low-lying island of 16 square kilometres in size. Unlike Koh Chang, there are few mountains and so the island is widely cultivated with coconut and rubber plantations.

The population is only around 800 and there is little infrastructure outside the resorts. It is a sleepy place where life moves slowly and a visit to the island is the perfect choice for visitors who want to relax by the beach and unwind from the stresses of modern life.

Since there are very few motor vehicles and the island is well covered by roads and tracks Koh Mak is perfect for exploring on foot or by bicycle. Although if you like to expend less effort getting around then many of the resorts now hire motorbikes out at around 250 Baht per day.

There are pretty beaches in the bays to the northwest and southwest of the island and this is where most of the resorts are located, although there are now some new resorts in the other bays.

Here there are still long stretches of beach with no development at all and on Koh Mak, you always feel a long way from the worst excesses of tourism development.
Other Islands

In the monsoon season from June to October there is no public transport between Koh Chang and Koh Mak but there are still four daily ferries to the mainland and most of the resorts now open year round.

There are a few smaller islands off Koh Mak, some of which have resorts and can be reached fairly easily from Koh Mak itself. They are Koh Kham, Koh Rayang Nok and Koh Kra Dad.

Activities on the island revolve largely around the beaches, but there are a few alternatives like Hongthong Muay Thai Gym and Koh Mak Disk Golf that are well worth a try. All the resorts have restaurants and bars and as you would expect you can find some good Thai food as well as a smattering of places that offer international fare.

It is easy to combine a trip to Koh Mak with visits to Koh Chang or some of the other islands in the archipelago. Refer to the transport section for details of the various ferries to the island that operate from the mainland, Koh Chang and the other islands. Alternatively, some of the Koh Chang boat trip services can drop you off on the island. Enquire for details.

When you arrive on Koh Mak representatives from many of the resorts will meet the ferry and offer free pick up and drop off to visitors.

Koh Kood

Koh Kood is the second largest and southernmost island in the Koh Chang archipelago. Its topography is similar to that of Koh Chang; it is also mountainous and largely covered in rainforest. The highest hill on Koh Kood, at 315 metres, is Khao Phaentee in the southeast of the island.

Another significant scenic feature is Klong Chao waterfall. The waterfall itself is not particularly high but falls into a huge plunge pool in a very beautiful jungle setting, a good place for a cooling swim. Various boat operators on Koh Chang or Koh Mak offer trips to the waterfall.

The sea here is extremely clear and a brilliant blue colour. This makes the many beaches that run down the West coast of the island extremely pleasant places to be. Also, there are some excellent corals at shallow depths on many of the beaches.

Despite the fact that Koh Kood is Thailand’s fourth biggest island the population is only around two or three thousand but infrastructure is improving rapidly.

The largest settlement is the fishing village of Ao Salat in the northeast. This is worth a visit just to see the wide range of seafood brought in and sold on the rickety wooden pier.

There is a limited local taxi service. Taxis are for hire at eye-wateringly high prices. Another option is to hire a motorbike or a bicycle or alternatively you might be able to get around in a motorboat or canoe.

There are some very high-end luxury resorts on Koh Kood but there are now also some new low and medium priced options as well.

From the mainland, the easiest way to reach the island independently is with one of the daily ferries that run from Laem Sork- 26km from Trat (see transport section). From Koh Chang use one of the speedboat services operated by Bang Bao Boat and Kai Bae Speedboat between October and May.

If you want a beautiful sandy beach virtually to yourself and don’t expect anything by way of nightlife other than listening to the waves lap then Koh Kood is the place for you. If you expect a party you will be disappointed but if peace and quiet is your thing then the island is a good choice of destination. The water around Koh Kood is famed for its blueness and clarity and you can find some pretty good corals off the beaches if you like to snorkel. You can dive off Koh Kood with B.B. Divers, Koh Kood Divers and with Paradise Divers, all of whom have offices on the island.

Koh Mak/Koh Kood Map

There isn’t really enough space here to tell you all about Koh Kood and Koh Mak. Fortunately, we make a map of both islands that you can pick for free or view and download at our website www.koh-chang-guide.com. It tells you everything you need to know about both of these lovely islands.

Koh Wai

Koh Wai is a small crescent-shaped island with two small, pleasant beaches. There are two resorts on the island with rooms that range from simple huts to larger air-conditioned beach bungalows. There is some good snorkelling on the shallow reefs off the beach. The lack of development makes the island an ideal place for a peaceful beach trip and it’s a good place to kick back after some strenuous travelling.

Other Islands

While there are plenty of uninhabited islands in the Koh Chang archipelago a couple of the other islands have resorts on the Koh Lao Ya is actually two separate islands linked by a bridge and is a pretty place that has had a resort on it for over ten years.

Koh Ngam is another island just off the South Eastern tip of Koh Chang. This island has a picturesque beach and a single resort. Some of the Koh Chang boat trip services can drop you off on the island. Enquire at local travel agents for more information.
The small town of Trat is the administrative and trading centre of Trat province. It is located 26km and 32km away from the two departure points for passenger ferries to Koh Chang. Trat only has a population of 20,000 but bustles with activity due to the fact that it is the main market town of the province.

There is an open-air market on the main street - Thanon Sukhumvit - that offers interesting Thai food and drinks late into the night. There is also a large covered day market selling all manner of foods and household goods.

Good things to shop for include the huge range of fruits that are available year-round, many of which you may not have seen before. Trat province is famous for the Rakham which is a rich sweet fruit that looks a bit like a strawberry. Or there is the Durian with its spiky shell, pungent smell and unique love-it-or-hate-it flavour. Try whatever looks interesting. You can also buy good fresh seafood and vegetables in the market.

Local handicrafts include elaborately woven wicker products, especially hats. These can be found in Ban Nam Chieo, a largely Muslim village between Trat and Laem Ngop.

Trat has a big Tesco Lotus supermarket with accompanying shops and restaurants and a food hall. And now also a Makro supermarket and huge Global Home store 4 km out of town.

Wat Buppharam is a 17th Century temple with some interesting architecture. It lies 2km out of town (see map). There are several other temples scattered around the town centre. Trat also has good medical, communication, financial and other facilities. Locations are shown on the map.

There is a multitude of local Thai restaurants around the town - the one opposite Trat Hospital is our favourite.

You can find many other small restaurants and bars scattered around the town centre. The large bar next to Tesco has live music and so does Knight which is a large club about 1km out of town on the Bangkok Road.

There is a guesthouse area just south of the town centre with many backpacker style guesthouses and accompanying restaurants, internet cafes etc. There is little to choose between the different guesthouses that all offer clean and inexpensive rooms together with good information and a friendly welcome.

About 10 minutes from the centre of Trat is an attractive reservoir that is a pleasant spot for an afternoon stroll. There are several restaurants in scenic locations on the shoreside. You can often see fireflies by the canal that begins here and flows through town.

Laem Ngop

Laem Ngop is a fishing village on the coast and is the departure point for passenger ferries to Koh Chang and the other islands.

Places worthy of note are the Immigration Office that serves the Eastern region of Thailand and the Tourist Authority of Thailand office.

By the ferry pier, there is a large monument commemorating two Thai boats that were sunk in a naval battle of 1942 off Koh Chang in which Thai forces repelled the French Navy.

Klong Yai & Hat Lek

Klong Yai is a small fishing town on the road to the Cambodian border at Hat Lek. It is the closest mainland town to Koh Kood and while there is, as yet, no regular ferry service you can ask around if you are feeling intrepid and maybe find a boat on its way to the island.

Heading on to the border itself at Hat Lek you will find a couple of hotels on the Thai side as well as thriving market selling all manner of weird and wonderful imports and exports.

Mainland Beaches

There is a long thin coastal section of Trat province that heads southeast towards the Cambodian border at Hat Lek, 90 kilometres from Trat. For detailed information take a look at our new map of the region on the facing page.

At the moment the area is not much visited by foreign tourists but this is slowly changing. There are a string of really attractive beaches on the long sandy coastline with a few accommodation options including the Centara Chaan Talay Resort which is a quality beachside resort located in a lovely beach of powder sand 46 kilometres from Trat Town. If you are looking for the peace and quiet of a deserted tropical beach then this is the place for you.

Heading away from Trat on Highway 318 these beaches include Sai Ngern Beach, Sai Kieow Beach, Tap Tim Beach, Mai Root Beach and Ban Chuen Beach, all of which offer rewards to the intrepid explorer.

Saphan Hin waterfall is located 31 kilometres from Trat and is an attractive cataract located at the end of a ten-minute walk along a riverside path through a pretty forested valley.
Here's something a little different. These pictures were taken in Koh Chang and around Trat province in 1935, all of 85 years ago.
The photographer who recorded these delightfully evocative images of the area in simpler times was a Dr. Robert La. We haven't been able to discover any more about the photographer or what brought him to this part of the world.

We're grateful to photographer K. Wisuwart Buroot who shares via Facebook some fabulous vintage photography from all over Thailand as well as some quality modern photos of his own.
Koh Chang has two excellent wreck dives. The first is the HTMS Chang, formerly the US Tank Landing Ship LST-542 which the Thai Navy decommissioned, stripped and sunk on November 22nd 2012 in 33 metres of water off the South-East coast of Koh Chang.

The Chang is 100 metres long and is Thailand’s longest wreck dive so you will find plenty of ship to explore under the waters and it is an interesting and challenging dive site for divers with advanced qualification. The undersea flora and fauna have now had time to develop and you can expect to see all kinds of larger pelagic fish in and around the wreck.

For the ship it is the end of a long life of service that started with its construction in Pittsburgh USA, and included World War 2 service in the Asia Pacific Theatre, with notable involvement in the occupation of Okinawa 1945. Subsequently it was put into use as a sea transport by the US Navy and saw extensive service during the Korean War including involvement in the Inchon Landing of 1950.

The ship must have performed well since in 1955 it was finally given a name rather than a number and continued to serve as the USS Lincoln County until it was decommissioned and transferred to the Royal Thai Navy in 1962.

And now there is a second wreck to visit. The Thai Navy sank another decommissioned vessel off the island in December 2013. The whole process happened very quickly and with little of the fanfare and long delays that accompanied the sinking of the first wreck. The boat was the USS PGM-71, renamed the T11 by Thailand’s Navy. It is a 30-metre long gunboat and has been sunk in shallower waters than the first wreck so divers can dive it with just an open water diving certificate. You can expect to see a good range and variety of undersea plants and animals that now call the wreck home. It’s another great reason to come and dive Koh Chang.

All of the dive shops listed in the Koh Chang Guide will be happy to give you further information about diving the wrecks.
Luxury Villa on 1 Rai Beachfront Chanote Land

Koh Chang has very few private homes that are actually located on a sandy beach. And they don’t come onto the market very often, for obvious reasons. Here’s a great one though, located on the East Coast of the island on a perfect private sandy stretch of beach.

The house is situated on a large 1 Rai (1,600sqm.) plot with 30 metres of absolute beachfront. There are three bedrooms and four bathrooms. It features a full Western kitchen, a large lounge and an office. The property also has a fully separate self-contained guest house with a bedroom and bathroom.

There is a large 10 metre by 5 metre beachfront pool with a covered “sala” deck area. The property has an excellent private water supply, 3 phase electricity and high speed fibre internet.

The owner wants a quick sale and despite the land and villa costing him 25 Million baht it is priced to sell at the extremely competitive price of 17.95 Million Baht.

All fixtures, fittings, and furniture are included, it is completely ready to occupy.

30 Room Resort & Pub
/Restaurant: Freehold Property in White Sand Beach

White Sand Beach is unquestionably one of the busiest and most desirable locations on Koh Chang for a tourism-related business and as a result, it is extremely rare that businesses and land in this area come onto the market.

But a 30 room resort opened in 2006 has become available together with one of the island’s best-established pub/restaurants. The resort has quality furnished rooms and a beautiful infinity swimming pool and Jacuzzi. Also included is a fully operational Irish Pub with a large customer base.

Perhaps the most significant aspect to this listing is that Freehold ownership of the land comes as part of the deal and this offers complete long-term security of tenure.

4 Rai Riverside CHANOTE and 1 Rai PBT5 only 4.5 Million Baht!
To say that this lovely plot of land up a charming valley near Dan Mai Village on the East Coast is priced to sell is an understatement. It is a fabulous bargain. The huge 8,000 sqm. plot of land has river frontage along it's lower end and then rises gently through an orchard and a rubber plantation with great valley views. There is road and bridge access and Dan Mai village is just a couple of minutes drive away. This would be great as a huge private home or homes or could be developed as a get-away-from-it-all forest resort.

If you fancy a break from the beach or from the tourist centres of the West side of Koh Chang then you will be well rewarded by a day or more exploring the 'undiscovered' East Coast of the island. This side of the island is far less developed than the other and you will be treated to a view of a more traditional Thai way of life as you watch local farmers and fisherman go about their business. Additionally, there is some great scenery and plenty of interesting stops to make. And don't worry; there are some quality restaurants and places to stay so you don't need to stock provisions.

There are no less than four waterfalls for you to visit. Heading south these are; Klong Nonsi just before Dan Mai village, Than Mayom a few kilometres further south and then Klong Nung and Khiri Phet waterfalls in the foothills of Salak Phet Mountain in the far south. Than Mayom is a six-level cataract and retains the most water of the four in the dry season.

Salak Khok Bay is a charming spot with large areas of mangrove forest and a small fishing village. You can view the mangroves from the Mangrove Forest Walkway but perhaps a better way to sample the atmosphere is on a guided kayak tour through the trees with Salak Khok Kayak Station, perhaps the only project on Koh Chang that is owned and operated by the local community.

The intrepid can continue to the far South and visit the lovely Long Beach. This isolated strand is deserted except for two backpacker places. The next bay to the South contains a memorial to the Thai soldiers who lost their lives in the Thai Naval encounter with the French in 1941.

The largest settlement in the South East of the island is Salak Phet. This waterside fishing village is at the mouth of a large bay dotted with islands. A great place to take in the atmosphere is the long pier that juts out deep into the bay. There is an observation tower at the end which offers great photo opportunities.
Open since 1999, 15 Palms is a beautiful beachside restaurant and bar located on White Sand Beach. You can relax in the comfortably furnished interior or watch the sea views from our beach terrace. The extensive 15 Palms menu offers a large choice of breakfasts, Thai food and European and international favourite dishes. You can enjoy delicious freshly-ground coffee and a large selection of gelato ice creams in the air-conditioned coffee shop. A children’s menu is also available. Beachside and hotel rooms are also available, with mezzanine rooms and also a swimming pool. Car parking is available across the road.
